THE FEVER SPREADING.

IN THE CRESCENT CITY.

The Death Rate, However, Continues Small, Thus Showing That There is No Increase in the Malignancy of the Yellow Scourge—Quarantined People Breaking Bounds.

New Orleans, Sept. 29.—Today has been a record breaker in the number of new cases of yellow fever reported while the deaths equalled in number those of any day since the yellow fever was first discovered in the city.

OVER BACK FENCES.

and sneaking out of side doors in order not to be confined, and the result has been that more germs have been scattered and rapidly developed in three warm days.

that there is no increase in the malignancy of the disease. The authorities here still believe that for some time longer the new cases will occasionally exceed the number on the books today, but they are singularly one in the opinion that the disease cannot attain the proportion of an epidemic.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

The board of health of the State of Louisiana officially announce the status of affairs in New Orleans as regards yellow fever as follows:

During the 24 hours ending September 29, at 9 p. m., there were cases of yellow fever today, 25; deaths today, 4. Total cases of yellow fever to date, 204; total deaths from yellow fever to date, 25.

A Touching Scene.

It is always charming to see children manifest tender affection toward their parents, and this is still more pleasing when the "children" are themselves men and women.

The writer remembers being on a railroad train several years ago, when directly in front of him sat a kindly looking, snowy haired old man, evidently unaccustomed to traveling, and as manifestly in his "second childhood."

"I'm going out to Iowa to see my son Jimmy and my daughter Nelly. Just think of it! I ain't seen either o' them children for most six years, and if they ain't tickled to see me I'll be mistaken. An' this train seems to fairly drag. I get so impatient every time it stops at a station! I wish it'd keep right on an' never stop until we git to K—; that's where Jimmy an' Nelly lives."

He began gathering up his few belongings when we were still an hour's ride from his destination. "I want to be ready to git right off when we stop," he said. "Jimmy and Nelly'll both be at the depot to meet me, although they live nine miles out in the country, an' there ain't no need o' both o' them comin'. But they'll be there—you see if they ain't."

When we reached K—the excited old man started to leave the car in eager haste. But the train had not yet come to a stand still, when a great bearded giant of a man, fully fifty years of age, hurried into the car.

"Jimmy!" called out the old man eagerly. "Here I am, Jimmy!"

"Father!" cried the son, and he took the little old man right into his arms and hugged him, while tears stood in the eyes of both.

A stout, plainly clad, middle-aged woman appeared at the car door and cried out, "Father!"

Then she turned and called to someone on the platform, "Here he is! Here's father!"

"Nell, my girl!" said the old man.

The son and daughter both had an arm around the father as he left the car. On the platform were seven or eight grandchildren, from five to twenty years of age.

"Here's your gran'pa!" said Nelly joyfully, and a great hugging and kissing time ensued.

Of course the passengers in the car and the bystanders on the platform smiled; but I think that most of them agreed with a lady on the car who said:

"It is a beautiful sight to see an old man loved and revered by his children and I only wish that such exhibitions of affection were more common."—Exchange.

A SUSPICIOUS CASE.

Causes a Loss to Trade of a Million Dollars a Day.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 29.—Eva Duncan, the negro woman who has been under guard three days, declared to be a suspicious case by State Health Officer Swearingen but by every local physician to be suffering dengue and kidney inflammation, is getting better. The cotton exchange and board of trade held a meeting today and passed resolutions requesting Surgeon General Wyman to send an expert here at once to look at the case and wired to him.

ADVANTAGES OF BARE FEET.

Are the Children of the Time "Dressed to Death?"

Visitors to Scotland says the Pall Mall Gazette, used to be horrified on seeing so many children running about barefooted. Bare feet are less common now than they were a generation ago, and perhaps the change, while showing a growing prosperity in the nation, is not altogether to be recommended.

Some mothers, by no means of the poorest classes, are convinced that the comfort and symmetry of the feet in maturer years are largely to be gained by giving them freedom during the time of growth.

And if shoes are undesirable, how much more so are gloves. Except the thick woolen ones for winter warmth, gloves should be banished from a child's wardrobe.

APPLE KING OF THE WORLD.

Judge Wellhouse is called the apple king of the world. His orchards, in Kansas, says the Kansas City Times, consist of 1,630 acres, containing 100,000 apple trees, and are located in the counties of Leavenworth, Miama, and Osage.

"I take more delight in planting trees and seeing them grow," said he to a Times correspondent, "than in anything else in the world." Chief precedence, as the to favorite varieties, is given to Ben Davis, of which he has 630 acres; Missouri Pippin, 360 acres; Johnathan, 300 acres, and Gano, 100 acres.

"In planting apple trees use land in as good a state of cultivation as for other crops. Make the rows north and south, thirty-two feet apart, by turning a straight plow furrow to the west and another to the east, say twenty inches from the first; the middle strip thus left is thrown out by round with the plow, the last furrow being about ten inches deep.

An Old Doctor's Favorite.

Dr. L. M. Gillam, who practiced medicine over forty years, originated, used and claimed that Botanic Blood Balm, (B. B. B.) which has been in use about fifty-five years, was the best Tonic and Blood Purifier ever given to the world.

AFTER SEVERAL DOCTORS FAILED.

I have been afflicted with Catarrh for many years, although all sorts of medicines and several doctors did their best to cure me. My blood was very impure, and nothing ever had any effect upon the disease until I used that great Blood Remedy known as Botanic Blood Balm, (B. B. B.), a few bottles of which effected an entire cure.
